

Valor Games SE 2016 Powerlifting Rules

These sport rules are modified from International Paralympic Committee competition rules to suit the population and goals of the Valor Games. The Valor Games Southeast 2016 are not a qualifying event for USA Nationals or other Paralympic sanctioned events.

Disability/Classification Groups

Open to all, except arm amputees.

- There will be an open category for athletes with PTSD and TBI but no physical disability.
- Athletes will be awarded by gender and weight class, as self-reported on their application.

Weight classes (in pounds)

- WOMEN: up to 88, 89-97, 98-105, 106-114, 115-123, 124-132, 133-148, 149-165, 166-180, over 180
  - MEN: up to 105, 106-114, 115-123, 124-132, 133-148, 149-165, 166-180, 181-198, 199-220, over 220
- *Classes may be combined or limited depending on number of participants in competition*

Event Rules

- This is a bench press ONLY competition.
- Athletes must wear a 100% cotton t-shirt with short sleeves that expose the elbow. T-shirt sleeves must not go lower than elbow so that when the athlete is lifting, judges can see the elbow.
- Athletes may wear shorts or sweat pants of their choosing, but no jeans or khakis.
- Athletes must wear tennis shoes, no dress shoes or flip-flops.
- The bar will be loaded progressively, so once the first attempts are chosen by the athletes, it may only be changed 1 time / within 5 minutes of the start of competition.
- There will be two to three benches and each bench will have 1 judge. The judge will determine if it is a good lift. There will be 1 jury person and an athlete may approach the jury if they feel they have been unfairly judged. The jury decision is final.
- A good lift: holding the bar in start position (above the pectoral area, motionless with elbows locked out) until the referee says "start". The bar shall move under control downward, touch the chest, pause and ascend controlled and held motionless at the top until the referee says "rack". At this point the spotter will assist the athlete in racking the bar.
- A bad lift: starting or racking before the command; touch and go on the chest without pausing; bouncing the bar on the chest / uneven extension, or any downward motion of the bar once the bar ascent has begun.
- A "thumbless" grip is not permitted in competition. A lifter's head and buttocks must also remain in contact with the bench throughout the lift from the issuing of the "start" command until the "rack" command is given.
- Athletes that are able may perform the lift with their feet on the floor, however once placed the feet cannot move from position between the issuing of the "start" command through the "rack" command. All other athletes must place their legs straight on the bench- If a lifter cannot fully stretch his/her legs due to physical disability he/she must report/identify this fact to the referee and the jury before getting onto the bench at the beginning of each attempt during the competition.

Valor Games SE 2016 Powerlifting Rules

- After each attempt, the lifter shall leave the bench and go to the table. Athletes will be able to check their current placement in their body weight category so that he/she can make an informed decision about the next attempt.
- Each competitor will have three attempts. Medals shall be awards based on the highest three lifts in each weight class category. All weights will be in pounds.

Medals

Medals will be awarded to the top three finishers in each weight class by gender.

Specific rules for Powerlifting: <http://www.teamusa.org/US-Paralympics/Sports/Powerlifting.aspx>